Summary

I'm PHP and Java programmer with 9 years of experience (5 years of career experience). I worked in many projects in many companies - from small, beginning startup to big, adult companies.
I worked one year totally remotely in two companies - I'm orderly and I can communicate and clearly explain ideas, problems and solutions when someone is not next to me.

I'm fascinated with programming, what you can notice looking on my own projects below.

I'm interested in algorithms, big data and machine learning (especially in image recognition, but natural language processing and speech recognition is also interesting). To learn machine learning I wrote three ML algorithms and special environment - there're described below.

I like to write and read clear code, splitted into separately modules. I write code using my knowledge of design patterns and principles for secure web applications. I'm enthusiast of code reviews and test driven development.

I worked in the backed (PHP, Java, Zend Framework, Laravel), with databases (MySQL, PostgreSQL, MS SQL, MongoDB), with search engine (Elasticsearch) and in the frontend (HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery).
